UTAH SUGAR CO.
WILL TAKE OVER
CALIFORNIA FIRM

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Final steps in carrying out the deal by which the Amalgamated Sugar Co. is to take over the plant of the Pacific Sugar Corporation at Tracy, were being taken yesterday by Ussing, Poole & Simmons, New York bankers.

Representatives of this firm are at the St. Francis, where they will be joined on Monday by Leroy R. Eccles, vice-president and general manager of the Amalgamated Sugar Co., which is closely connected with and is controlled by the Mormon church. The Amalgamated Sugar Co. already possesses extensive plants at Ogden and Logan, Utah; Le Grande, Ore., and elsewhere, and enjoys the reputation in financial circles of being a very strong corporation.

The Pacific Sugar Corporation, which is to be examined next week and taken over, represents a promotion of Roy Pike, and was organized as an incident to the exploitation and development of extensive acreage owned by the Whitehall estate, near Tracy. The price at which the California company is to be acquired has not been divulged.

During the last two years the Amalgamated Sugar Co. has been extending the field of its operations very extensively, and a recent report from Ogden announced that President Eccles was contemplating the erection of a new sugar plant in the Jefferson River valley, Montana, conditioned on the farmers of that section agreeing to plant 7000 acres in sugar beets.

W. C. WOODWARD
IN LAND OFFICE

Wilbur C. Woodward, former assistant superintendent of public works and acting superintendent for several separate times when Charles E. Forbes was on the mainland, has been appointed office engineer in the bureau of hydrography, land department, succeeding Charles T. Bailey, promoted to chief engineer.

Mr. Woodward's appointment is made by Land Commissioner Bertram C. Rivenburgh. The experience the new engineer has had in work on the various islands is considered of high value in the office. He began his new duties today.

Following his resignation from the public works department Mr. Woodward was employed for a time this spring by the Spalding Construction Company and later by the department quartermaster.

Fourteen candy manufacturers in Cleveland will cut down on their output in order to conserve sugar.

CHINA PROTESTS JAPAN CONTROL OF RAILROADS

PEKING, China, Nov. 1.—The Chinese government, through its department of foreign affairs, yesterday sent out to the powers a formal protest against the extension of Japanese control over the railway of the Shantung peninsula.

This protest is based on the claim of China to a restoration of the sovereignty of the Shantung sections over which Germany had exercised sovereign power and which were captured by Japan.

FINNS PEEVED AT U. S. EMBARGO ON FLOUR

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Nov. 1.—The ban which the United States has placed upon exports of flour destined for Finland has provoked intense bitterness on the part of both the press and the people of Finland. They maintain they are loyal to the Allies and that the action taken by the United States is unfriendly.

BRAZIL MOBILIZING; FEARS HUN UPRISING

BUENOS AYRES, Argentina, Nov. 1.—Brazil is mobilizing an army to prevent a German and pro-German uprising in the south. This was told in reports received from Rio Janeiro last night.

DEFENSE SOCIETY URGES WAR ON HUN ALLIES

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.)
NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 1.—The trustees of the American Defense Society yesterday passed a resolution urging upon President Wilson the necessity of calling a special session of congress to declare war upon Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria.

The trustees urge that, in view of the necessity of sending immediate aid to Italy, a state of war between America and Austria should be proclaimed, otherwise embarrassing complications may result. It is also pointed out that the presence of Austrian representatives throughout the United States, many of whom are acting as spies and agents of Germany, adds to the difficulties of keeping military secrets from the enemy and places the secret service agents and others in situations where they are hampered and embarrassed in their work.

The arguments applying to Austria and the necessity of a declaration of war against that power, apply equally in the cases of Turkey and Bulgaria, the resolution states.

It is pointed out that the regular date for the convening of congress is too late, if the best interests of the nation are to be conserved.

CHAOTIC CONDITIONS PREVAIL IN RUSSIA

LONDON, Eng., Nov. 1.—The general situation throughout Russia remains chaotic, with many of the provinces evincing a hostility towards the Petrograd government that has taken the form of refusing to sell flour to the residents of that capital.

Yesterday the mayor of Petrograd posted notices throughout the city thus explaining the scarcity of bread, announcing that the wheat growing districts, in many cases, had refused to ship flour to the capital. The notices urged the citizens to remain calm, as the government was preparing to remedy this condition. Above all, he prohibited the holding of any mass meeting to discuss the food situation.

Throughout the country districts, anarchy prevails and various attempts to destroy railroad bridges and rolling stock have been reported. Neither passenger nor freight trains leave any of the principal centers now without strong military guards aboard, to check any attempts at seizing the trains or wrecking them.

TELEPHONE OPERATORS AGREE TO DELAY STRIKE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 1.—Avoidance of a tying up of the business of the cities of the Pacific coast seemed probable last night through the efforts of Mediator Reed. He secured an agreement to postpone the strike of the telephone girls operating on the switchboards, and the men in the wiring and trouble departments who were to join the strike in sympathy.

Before the order to postpone and notice of the agreement had reached Seattle the telephone company employees there had voted to strike immediately and the operators did so as their shifts ended. That the strike has spread to Spokane and other northern cities is indicated but Reed expressed the belief that they would return to work pending arbitration.

NEW JERSEY HUN EDITOR INDICTED FOR TREASON

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 1.—Benedict Prieth, editor and publisher of the New Jersey Free Zeitung was indicted for treason by the federal grand jury yesterday. The indictment was based on the wording, the tone and meaning of several articles which had been published by the German paper dealing with the position of the United States, causes for entry into the war and criticism of President Wilson, his cabinet and various officials of the government.

DECLARES FOOD IS PLENTIFUL IN GERMANY

BERLIN, Germany, Nov. 1.—The undersecretary of the food department has issued an official statement in which he announces that subsistence for the nation during the fourth year of the war is now assured, the reports of the harvest being complete.

"The potato crop," he states, "is over four million tons above the estimate, while a corn supply has been secured sufficient to carry the nation through until the harvest of 1918."

FEAR SCHOONER WHITE BEAR LOST "UP NORTH"

NOME, Alaska, Nov. 1.—Citizens yesterday commended a tug which was despatched to sea to search for the schooner White Bear. The schooner, with four persons aboard, was blown out to sea by a gale which raged throughout Sunday and has since not been sighted. Fears are entertained that the schooner has become unseaworthy and that those aboard are unable to bring her back to port.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA BONE DRY TERRITORY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—This capital and the District of Columbia joined the ranks of the "dry" territory of the United States last night at midnight, under the terms of the recently enacted legislation. The act of congress makes the district bone dry. The closing hours of the saloons were marked by noisy celebrations.

AMERICAN AIRMAN KILLED IN JAPAN

TOKIO, Japan, Nov. 1.—Frank Champion, the American aviator who has been giving a series of exhibition flights in Japan, was killed yesterday when his machine fell during a flight at Kochio.

NEW ORLEANS SUGAR EXCHANGE CLOSES

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 1.—Following the information published in the daily papers yesterday morning on the new regulations of the food administration and the sugar commission and which raises the prescribed price that may be paid for the Cuban cane product a full cent, and in the absence of official advice from the food administration on the subject of prices for New Orleans sugar, the local sugar exchange closed today. When desired instructions are received the exchange will reopen.

It is taken here that the raise in price given to Cuba will automatically change the agreement that was reached between the food administration and Louisiana producers and raise the price a cent a pound but with no official advice as to this, the brokers determined to close the exchange.

CANADA TO VOTE ON CONSCRIPTION DEC. 17

OTTAWA, Canada, Nov. 1.—The date for the general election in Canada was announced last night, polling to take place throughout the Dominion on December 17. The issue is to be whether the conscription act, passed some weeks ago, is to be retained as it stands, or whether the parliament shall suspend the operations of that act until a referendum of the voters can be taken.

ANOTHER LOAN TO BRITAIN

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—An additional twenty-five million dollars was loaned by the treasury yesterday to Great Britain.

The blue Jay, a little bigger than a robin, is unmistakable. The kinglets are tiny, olive gray and dull white fancy caps; the golden crowned yellow and black striped; the ruby crowned as named.
